County Coordinator Responsibilities

County Coordinators serve as a 'watchmen' for their communities, state and nation.

Jeremiah 29:7, Ezekiel 3:16

The County Coordinator position exists to pray for, coordinate with and support the local prayer efforts of churches, pastor networks and prayer ministries on the National Day of Prayer and throughout the year. This coordinator will help promote prayer events throughout the year and develop/support city coordinators in their county. A County Coordinator may take responsibility for more than one county in the state.

Principal Duties and Responsibilities

1. Recruit & support city and prayer coordinators
 - a. Address questions/concerns
 - b. Provide training – how to plan prayer gatherings
 - c. Provide encouragement to prayer leaders
2. Identify coordinator training needs and report those needs to the Area Coordinator (or State Coordinator)
3. Identify & support prayer groups/ministries in the county
 - a. Develop personal relationships with leaders
 - b. Pray for the ministries/groups
 - c. Promote participation in ReUnionWatch Net
 - d. Participate in prayer meetings when feasible
 - e. Connect ministries with one another
 - f. Start prayer groups as needed
4. Promote NDP and CCOP prayer events throughout the county
 - a. Negotiate PSAs with local TV/radio stations in trade for logo insertion in emails, fliers and event programs.
 - b. Network with pastors/church leaders to encourage them to host or participate in prayer gatherings on the National Day of Prayer and throughout the year.
5. Build Christ-centered Relationships
 - a. Pray for City and Prayer Coordinators – for their unique personal and ministry needs.
 - b. Maintain regular communications with city/event coordinators and the Area/State Coordinator.
6. Mobilize year round prayer initiatives
 - a. Establish a schedule of prayer watches for the county
 - b. Encourage intercessors/prayer ministries to unite in prayer by taking one or more prayer watches.
 - c. Establish relationships with key Christian county influencers/decision makers to establish prayer leaders in the 7 centers of influence - in concert with City Coordinators
